Next results >> In these grammar worksheets, students classify nouns in sentences as concrete or abstract. Concrete nouns are things we can see, hear, touch, smell or taste; abstract nouns are ideas and concepts. It can be rather challenging to get the idea of abstract nouns across our young learners. The key to do this is by gently exposing them to various abstract nouns using the context of sentences. Keeping this concept in mind, we have here for you a collection of carefully designed abstract noun worksheets that help them broaden their understanding of abstract nouns in contexts, and also form abstract nouns from common nouns, adjectives and verbs that they commonly use. The worksheets are tailor-made for children of grade 3, grade 4 and grade 5.
